Get There
From Here

From Sault Ste. Marie

Take Hwy. 17 to White River, then Hwy. 631 through Horne Payne to Hwy. 11, then west to Geraldton.

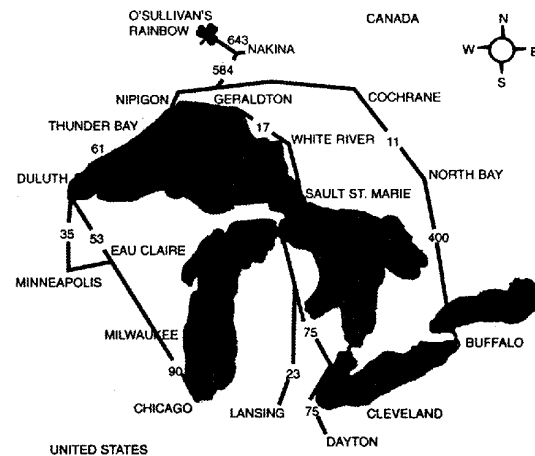

From Duluth, Minnesota

Take U.S. Hwy. 61 to Thunder Bay and then Hwy. 17 & 11 from Thunder Bay east for 70 miles to Nipigon River bridge, turn left on Hwy. 11 and travel north to Geraldton (about 100 miles).

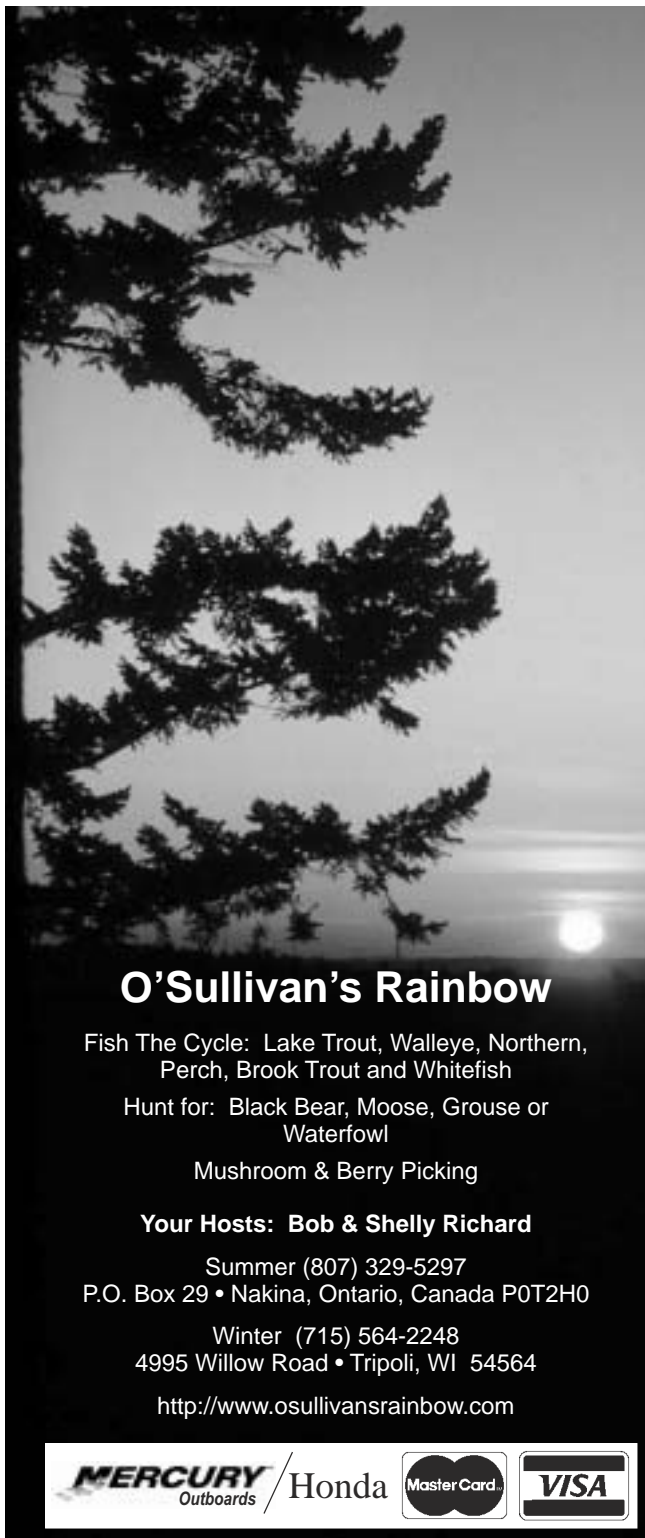

From Toronto, Ontario

Take Hwy. 11 via North Bay direct to Geraldton.

Once you have reached Geraldton, go north on Hwy. 584 until you reach a sign for O'Sullivan Lake Tourist Area (about 36 miles). Turn left on Hwy. 643 just past this sign. After approximately 12 miles, the pavement ends. Continue 16 more miles on gravel then follow the O'Sullivan's Rainbow directional signs.

YES! It's worth the trip! Not only will you enjoy the unbelievable structure of this marvelous body of water, the lonely shrill of the loon and a breath of fresh air, but you will catch fish ... good fish ... we guarantee it.
